Group Votes to Ban Gun Sales by Mail

By JOHN CHADWICK Associated Press Writer WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate Judiciary Committee voted 7 to 6 today for a ban on interstate mail order sales of handguns as part of a sweeping anti-crime bill.

Three absent members will be given until late in the day to vote, and indications were that the final tally will be 9 to 7 for the firearms control section.

Chairman James O. Eastland, D-Miss., said the over-all bill will be reported promptly to the Senate, which is expected to take it up next Tuesday.

Earlier that same day—and just hours before Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. was assassinated by a sniper using a rifle—the panel voted down administration measures to clamp controls on sales of rifles and shotguns.

Still at issue is whether the committee voted to prohibit or merely regulate interstate mail-order sales of handguns.

REP. FEILD (From Page 1)

ci, a leading candidate for the next speaker of the House of Representatives, and shares No. 1 seniority with 3 other members of the house.

Mr. Feild issued the following statement: "At the present time your representative has pending in the legislative council the following studies:

"1. To determine the effect and impact of the federal wage and hour law on state appropriations, the probable continued effect on the next and future general assemblies in conforming therewith, and its impact and continued impact on the state's economy;

"2. To determine new methods of industrial financing to replace those available under Amendment 49 and Act 9 bonds which have been denied Arkansas by a recent ruling of the Federal Internal Revenue Department;

"3. To determine the adequacy of the facilities at various vocational-technical schools in the state;

"4. To determine if safety regulations governing television sets and antennas should be enacted into law by the general assembly;

"5. To determine the effect upon hospitals and nursing homes in the state in the care of patients under medicare;

"6. To determine the feasibility of establishing a public defender system whereby counsel may be furnished indigents involved in criminal prosecutions;

"7. To review and determine adequacies of laws and procedures concerning submission of proof of assessment of personal property and payment of personal taxes as a condition for the issuance or renewal of motor vehicle license;

"8. Concerning the law authorizing cities to levy an annual fee of $5 per motor vehicle and its impact on students attending colleges and universities in cities with such a tax;

"9. To determine possible training and retraining programs for welfare recipients;

"10. To determine the cost to the state of the title XIX of the Medicare program; and

"11. To determine constitutional and statutory changes that may be required by the recent decision of the U. S. Supreme court extending the 'one man - one vote' ruling to local units of government.

"It is my hope that from these studies, and the hearings held in connection therewith, meaningful legislation, if found necessary, may be forthcoming in the next regular session of the legislature.

"Through your contacts with me, it is apparent that you do not desire an increase in taxes, but instead a curtailment of expenditures so that our state government will operate within its income.

"I pledge you that as your representative I will continue to represent you to the best of my ability and to utilize, in your behalf, the knowledge acquired and experience gained in the legislature through your continued support."

Mills Still Demanding Cutbacks

CHICAGO (AP) — Rep. Wilbur D. Mills, D-Ark., reiterated Tuesday his demand that any income tax hike be accompanied by a cutback in funds now authorized for future government spending and not just for the coming year.

"It is not enough to simply postpone expenditures in a given year," Mills said, adding that unspent authorizations by July 1 will total $222.3 billion "that can be spent without any further action by the Congress."

Mills, chairman of the House Ways and Means Committee, said the figure will rise in another year to $236.4 billion unless cut back.

Mills' committee has sat on President Johnson's 10 per cent income surtax proposal since last fall.

Phone Strike Settlement Predicted

WASHINGTON (AP) — The leader of some 165,000 striking telephone workers has predicted that settlement of the week-old nationwide walkout may not be too far off.

"There is absolutely no doubt in my mind that the Communications Workers will have an overwhelming win, and in the not too distant future," said union President Joseph A. Beirne.

While there have been no formal wage negotiations since the strike began in some 40 states, Beirne said Tuesday informal talks with the Bell Telephone System were continuing.

Informed sources said negotiators were apparently trying to work out the broad outlines of a settlement that could be completed later in formal talks.

In New York, Patrick Morgan, chairman of the union's 23,000-member unit of telephone installers, met in what were described as informal, exploratory talks with J. F. Griggs, manager of Labor relations for Western Electric Co.

The installers, highest-paid telephone workers at an average of $3.27 per hour, traditionally set the pattern for wage increases in the Bell Telephone System, of which Western Electric is a subsidiary.

Other Bell System workers average $2.79 per hour. In addition to the installers in most states, another 140,000 Bell operators, linemen, repairmen, clerks and other employees are on strike in 15 states where Bell contracts have also expired.

weekly pickup from the residential area will be $1.50 per month. According to the study recently completed by the sanitation department, this will produce enough revenue to make the service self supporting.

Leo Stanley, Assistant Director of the Southwest Arkansas Economic Development District, and County Judge, Flins Odom, met with the City Board for a discussion of financing Hempstead County's part of the cost of funding the 12-county district organization.

The district had requested contribution from each county of 10c per capita per year. Hempstead County's part of this program will be $1,960. The Board of Directors and Judge Odom agreed that the total cost be split equally between the City of Hope and Hempstead County. The Economic Development Administration has ordered that all states be organized on a district basis and any county who does not belong to a district organization will not be eligible for Federal Economic Development Administration funds.

In other action the Board agreed to pay Mrs. Alma Drew $100.00 for the removal of an old condemned residence on her property.

A group interested in promoting drag racing at the Airport appeared before the Board and asked that drag racing be permitted to be resumed. The Board advised the group that the Federal Aviation Agency has completed plans for an instrument approach to the Hope Airport working off the Texarkana radio, and that they would have to determine whether or not drag racing would interfere with the establishment of this instrument procedure.

The Board authorized the City Manager to ask for bids on a pickup and 3 two-ton trucks to replace worn out equipment in the Street Department. They also authorized asking for bids on a new maintainer which the Street Department needs to carry on the greatly expanded program of street building and maintenance which was recently adopted.

They reviewed with John E. Hawkins, Engineer, a preliminary engineering report on the problems that will be encountered on building a 36 foot arterial street along 6th street from Fair Park on the West side of town to Edgewood on the East.

The job will involve replacing about 15 blocks of sewer lines which are in bad condition, and the lowering or relocating of water mains for almost the entire distance across town.

Another problem that will be encountered will be with trees along the street which are so far out in the right-of-way that they will have to be removed in order to build a 36 foot street. There is an existing 60 foot right-of-way over most of the street west of the railroad and in no case is the right-of-way less than 50 feet. It will be necessary to require additional right of way from Walnut Street to Edgewood.

$1.8 Million for Arkansas

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS WASHINGTON (AP) — A Defense Department request for a total of $1,810,000 in new military construction in Arkansas was approved Tuesday by the House Armed Services Committee.

The request was for $1,641,000 for the Blytheville Air Force Base and $169,000 for the Pine Bluff Arsenal.

Asks Money to Feed the Hungry

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of Agriculture Orville L. Freeman says his department would need new power from Congress and billions of dollars to provide the food aid envisioned by a citizen group which reports some 10 million Americans are constantly hungry.

Freeman commented Tuesday following issuance of a report by a 25-member Citizens Board of Inquiry into Hunger and Nutrition.

No Comment on Loss of Costly Plane

By LEWIS M. SIMONS Associated Press Writer

SAIGON (AP) — No F-4s flew against North Vietnam Tuesday, but a U.S. military spokesman in Saigon implied tonight that the $6-million, swing-wing fighter-bomber has not been grounded again after its third crash in a month.

"There has been no change in the status of the F-4," said the spokesman after a day of rumors and inquiries. He would not elaborate.

In Washington, the Pentagon refused to comment and said any information would have to come from Saigon.

There was no indication whether any F-4s were used in the raids on North Vietnam today. Normally reports on the days air operations would not be given until Thursday.

The third F-4 lost on Vietnam duty disappeared Monday night, and North Vietnam claimed today its forces had shot down the plane over Quang Binh, the province just north of the demilitarized zone. It said nothing about the two crewmen.

The U.S. Command said the plane was believed to have crashed in Thailand, but it gave no further information on the plane or the fate of the crew.

The North Vietnamese also claimed to have shot down the F-4s which were lost March 28 and March 30. U.S. officers believe the first plane crashed in a remote area of Thailand or Laos, and the wreckage of the second was found in northern Thailand. Its crash was attributed to a capsule of sealing material, mistakenly left by mechanics, that became lodged in the flight controls. The two crew members bailed out and were rescued.

Six F-4s arrived at Ta Khil air base in Thailand March 17 and went into combat March 25. They were grounded for 11 days after the crash March 30 and have flown combat missions on about 17 days in all. Two additional F-4s were brought in to replace the first two losses.

Some 130 million people speak the Russian language.

Publisher to Run for Legislature

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Louis "Swampy" Graves, 54, publisher and editor of the Nashville News, filed Tuesday as a Democratic candidate in House District 31, which is Howard and Pike counties.

Sen. W. K. "Bill" Ingram, 55, of West Memphis, filed for reelection to Pos. 2 in Senate District 25, which is Cross, Crittenden and St. Francis counties. Ingram has served in the Senate since 1963.

Elton A. Rieves III, a 32-year-old West Memphis lawyer, attempted to file as an independent candidate for the House seat being vacated by Rep. C. B. Nance of West Memphis, but Secretary of State Kelly Bryant rejected his petitions because they weren't in order.

Rieves, who is seeking Pos. 2 in District 28 (Crittenden County) took the petitions back to West Memphis to correct the error, which was described as a technicality.

It would take an additional eight to ten days of study before the administration is ready to draft bills to alleviate the problem to present to the special session.

Rockefeller indicated without being specific that the change of heart over the tax question resulted from the need of an additional $1.75 million to operate the state penitentiary system.

Definitely in the revenue picture, the governor said, was a bill to allow the state to collect the stamp tax on real estate transfers, a measure that would provide an estimated $500,000 annually.

The same proposal was defeated in the February special session.

Rockefeller also said he would "entertain" the idea of including a mixed drink proposal in the special session call if the bill were as good as one introduced in the 1967 regular session.

An Association of private club managers says it is drafting such a measure but Rockefeller said he hadn't seen it yet.

HELEN HELP US!

by Helen Bottel

IT'S NOW OR NEVER

Dear Helen: I've been going steady with a certain man for six years. We are both in our 50s. He is a salesman, and when he comes to town, we have a wonderful time. He says there is no one else. Now he has suggested that he move here and live in my apartment, as he won't be on the road so much. He would assume expenses.

The one thing he hasn't suggested is marriage. I may be old fashioned, but I can't see sharing an apartment except as a wife. He is a bachelor and I am a widow. We get along beautifully, and if it isn't love, it's the next thing to it. I feel miserable without him.

Should I take advantage of Leap Year and propose?—ASKED BUT UNANSWERED

Dear A but U: Why not assume this bachelor's proposition was meant as a proposal, and happily aim him toward a minister? Even if it wasn't it will be, if you play your cards right. —H

Dear Helen: My husband died two years ago, leaving me with eight children. My trouble is with my grown daughter who lives with us, and tries to run my life. She is bitter and cynical, gets mad at everything I do. She curses me and says she wishes I was dead. The worst thing is whenever I discipline the younger children, she tells them they don't have to mind, that I'm a mean old bag, and that they don't have to listen to me.

She has turned my 16-year-old boy so much against me that he goes into rages and threatens to kill me. Now he's threatening his little sister too. He says if I don't "give" him everything he wants, they won't be here much longer.

My daughter eggs him on. She's 26 and has a job, but when I ask her to leave, she says she doesn't have to and I can't make her.

I try to bring the children up right. I don't go out, and don't drink. All but these two go to church with me every Sunday. They're good children, except for the two bad seeds. Their Dad acted this way too. I honestly think they would do anything, including murder, to spite me.

Is there some sort of specialist I could see?—FRIGHTENED MOTHER

Dear Mother: Call the Mental Health Association or the Family Service Agency in your town and tell them of the murder threats. They'll see that you get immediate help. Your minister will assist you in making contact with them.

Perhaps these two "bad seeds" aren't as dangerous as they sound, but I believe authorities will agree with me—they should be removed from the family. —H

Dear Helen: I am divorced from a man who treated me as if I didn't exist. He was too busy gambling, drinking and chasing to have time for his family. But somehow my friends only remember how handsome and charming he was.

Now I have met a wonderful man who works steadily, loves me and my kids, doesn't drink, or chase, is good to his mother, and has even started going to church with me.

But my friends make mean comparisons. They say he is nothing because he doesn't "lay it on with a trowel" as my "ex" did. He's not a fancy dresser—but he has asked me to help select his clothes, so he'll be more in style. Sometimes his English isn't too polished, but he wants to learn.

How do I make my friends see that being sharp isn't nearly as great as being steadfast?—ON A STRAIGHT TRACK

Dear OST: By steadfastly ignoring their comments, and if those friends date back to the gambling and gambling days, perhaps you should look for replacements. —H

This column is dedicated to family living, so if you're having kid trouble, or just plain trouble, let Helen help YOU. She will also welcome your own amusing experiences. Address Helen Bottel in care of Hope Star. Copyright, 1967, Inc.

13-Year-Old Is Teaching in College

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — Edith Stern, who entered college at the age of 13, has been accepted as a math instructor at Michigan State University. She now is 16.

The teen-ager, who has been called genius since the age of two, chose a graduate assistantship in the math department at Michigan State over offers from "six or seven other very fine schools," said her father, Aaron.

Edith graduates from Florida Atlantic University in August, celebrates her 16th birthday a few days later and then heads for East Lansing in September. According to the university, Edith will deliver two-hour algebra lectures twice a week, act as consultant to students and grade tests in addition to taking three graduate courses.

"I hope I'll be able to finish up on my Ph.D. in two years," she said.

"This is a gigantic step she's taking," her father said. "Michigan State has one other genius who has attracted just as much attention as she has and he will undoubtedly be a new challenge to her."

"It will be interesting; it'll certainly be different," Edith said when she learned that one of her classmates will be Michael Grost, 14-year-old senior in advance mathematics. Grost was admitted to Michigan State at 12.

The Brooklyn-born coed's I.Q. has been tested at anywhere from 154 to 201 depending on the test used. Dr. John Hocking, director of graduate admissions at MSU who approved the admission of both young scholars, said Grost's intelligence has defied the best attempts to measure it.

Canadiens Are Nearing Great Coup

By JOE MOOSHIL
Associated Press Sports Writer
CHICAGO (AP) — The Montreal Canadiens are on the threshold of pulling off what could become one of the greatest coups in the annals of hockey.

Their 4-2 victory over the Chicago Black Hawks gave them a 3-0 lead in the best-of-7 series following their four-game sweep over Boston. A victory Thursday night against the Hawks would end the current series and give them the East Division title.

After that, the Canadiens face the expansion winner—St. Louis or Minnesota—for the coveted Stanley Cup and they could defeat the expansion champions in four straight.

Chances are that such an opportunity for a 12-game sweep will never again be presented but the Canadiens aren't thinking about it. Well, not really.

"All we're doing is looking for another win here against Chicago," said Canadian Coach Toe Blake. "Listen, those Hawks are a pretty good club and you just don't go around talking about a four-game sweep against the Black Hawks."

"Certainly, we'll be trying for four straight but four out of seven will suit me," said Blake.

Jean Beliveau, who put the Canadiens ahead at 39 seconds with an unassisted goal, aid, "The important thing is to win this series and the fourth game."

The West Division final resumes Thursday night at St. Louis. The best-of-7 series between St. Louis and St. Paul-Minneapolis is tied at 1-1.

QUICK QUIZ

Q—Why is cashmere wool such an expensive product?
A—The average-sized cashmere goat gives only about three ounces of the downy fleece that makes up this wool. Cashmere goats live principally in Tibet and India.

Q—Who started the raisin industry in California?
A—Priests, Jesuit friars and Franciscan padres. The padres planted fruit trees and vines around their missions to help supply Indian settlements with food.

McCarthy Is Winner in Pennsylvania

By JACK BELL
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey is trying in his still-unannounced bid for the Democratic presidential nomination to forge on a national scale the kind of farm-labor coalition he helped create in Minnesota.

To the surprise of no one Secretary of Agriculture Orville L. Freeman came out for Humphrey Tuesday. He said he had told President Johnson in advance of his intentions and added that he thinks Johnson is going to remain neutral.

Humphrey, who has made it clear he will run on the administration's record, already has the backing of AFL-CIO President George Meany.

Humphrey and Freeman—once a political protege of the vice president— and Sen. Eugene J. McCarthy, a candidate for the presidential nomination, all worked together to build the Democrat-Farmer-Labor party of Minnesota out of the wreckage of what had been the regular Democratic organization.

In other political developments:

— McCarthy, alone on Pennsylvania's presidential primary ballot, outpolled write-in Sen. Robert F. Kennedy 10 to 1 and Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey even more. On the Republican side, Richard M. Nixon outpolled New York Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller 3 to 1, both with write-in votes.

The unofficial count: Democrats (5,337 of 9,460 precincts) — McCarthy 219,802, Kennedy 22,848, Humphrey 18,040, President Johnson 6,557, former Alabama Gov. George Wallace 1,574; Republicans (5,115 precincts) — Nixon 49,689, Rockefeller 18,589, California Gov. Ronald Reagan 2,631, Wallace, 2,428, Johnson 699, Pennsylvania Gov. Raymond P. Shafer 365.

Memphis Woman Wreck Victim

LONOKE, Ark. (AP) — Mrs. Leatrice Roland, 36, of Memphis was killed Monday when the car her husband was driving crashed into a bridge railing about 10 miles northwest of here on Interstate 40.

Police said her husband, Marvin Roland, 45, was hospitalized at Little Rock with a knee injury. Both were thrown from the car, they said.

We wish to express our sincere thanks and appreciation to our many friends and relatives for every deed of kindness, words of affection, gifts of food and flowers and most of all for your prayers during the illness and death of our mother.

May God Bless each of you.

There aren't sufficient words to express to the Hicks Funeral Home, to our many friends and relatives, our appreciation for the many deeds of kindness, help, consolation, and sympathy extended to us in the loss of our husband, father, and brother. To all who helped in any way, We extend our sincere thanks. May God bless you all.

Bennett Brushes Off Past Defeat

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Bruce Bennett, passing off his defeat for re-election for attorney general in 1966 as "a bad year for the 'ins,'" announced Tuesday his candidacy for the Democratic gubernatorial nomination.

Bennett described the administration of Gov. Winthrop Rockefeller as "an expensive luxury" which "disappointed and disenchanted" Arkansians "can no longer afford."

"I cannot and will not promise a pie in the sky administration — everyone cannot have everything they want just because they want it instantly," Bennett said.

Bennett sought the office once before when he was defeated with other hopefuls in 1960 by former Gov. Orval E. Faubus.

Bennett was asked why he thought voters would support him this year when two years ago he lost in the Democratic primary while seeking re-election as attorney general.

"I won six out of eight races, which is a pretty good track record," Bennett said. He included his two successful campaigns for prosecutor in Union, Cola, Ouachita and Calhoun counties and his four terms as attorney general.

"I believe two years ago was somewhat of an antipode," he said. "It was a bad year for the 'ins.'"

Bennett promised a campaign of stumping the entire state because he said the only politics he knew was "to get out on the back roads and see the people."

"I'm going to see more people than any candidate this summer," Bennett said. "The so-called kingmakers are no longer the kingmakers as far as delivering any large block of votes. They don't do it."

Bennett was asked about his affiliation with the Arkansas Loan & Thrift Co. at Fort Smith, which has been placed in federal receivership and whose officers face trial this summer on charges filed by the state Securities Division.

Bennett said that his wife had held stock in the company, but that she sold it "either year before last or last spring." He also said he never gave the company any opinions while he served as attorney general that would have enabled it to operate.

Brig. Gen. Nguyen Ngoc Loan wrote U.S. adviser John Manopol he would pay no attention to U.S. reports on police personnel "when they threaten to withdraw support as a means of applying pressure."

"If your division sees fit to cut aid to any police unit as a means of applying pressure, please feel free to do so," Loan said in the letter, written April 1.

Manopol is on leave outside Vietnam and was not available for comment.

Manopol's office had forwarded to Loan several reports from U.S. advisers in the field with evidence of corruption or gross incompetence on the part of police officials, sources said.

One of the reports concerned Lu Van Vinh, police chief of Vung Tau, a seaside resort southeast of Saigon and a major recreation area for U.S. soldiers.

The mayor of Vung Tau was recently removed for corruption, and the U.S. report sent Loan charged that Vinh had condoned kickbacks, bribes, illegal licensing, gambling and prostitution. The report asked that he be removed. When Vinh was not fired, his U.S. adviser was called back to Saigon, and all financial and material aid to the Vung Tau police was cut off.

Maybe This Is What Wilbur Mills Is Getting at

Anyone with the courage to challenge the financial policy of the Political Establishment may expect to become the target of the Establishment's propaganda machine.

Arkansas Congressman Wilbur D. Mills, chairman of the House Ways & Means Committee, most powerful unit of the Congress because it originates all tax bills, discovered this truth when he suggested that President Johnson wouldn't get his income tax hike without definite controls over federal spending.

Immediately the bureaucrats unleashed charges that Congressman Mills was trying to undercut many of the administration's domestic programs.

But Mills stood calm and steadfast. He called in the press this week and spelled out his position.

He was not, he said, demanding expenditure cuts so much as he was demanding a stop to the practice of escalating expenditures with every biennial budget.

In effect his position is simply this: Unless a ceiling is put on the budgets asked every two years by the nation's myriad federal agencies there is no point to ordering a tax increase now — for we would reach a new crisis every two years, and the demand for additional tax increases would be endless.

While Mills didn't say it in so many words my guess is that what he is driving at is this: If unlimited federal spending is, as many of us believe, a major cause of today's inflation and rising consumer prices, then the Government's insistence that unlimited spending continue is a calculated policy of deceit.

Constantly more money is put into circulation by Government, which is both spender and paper-money printer — until the people wake up and find their money is worthless.

Additional taxes alone won't help; there has to be a ceiling on expenses, too, if the dollar — whether the spending-dollar or the tax-dollar — is to continue as an honest medium of exchange.

That's my educated guess on what Congressman Mills was thinking in this week's conference with the press.

No Immunity for Foreigners

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The attorney general's office ruled Tuesday that foreign students in Arkansas are offered no immunity from paying real or personal taxes.

The opinion went to a delinquent tax collector at Fayetteville who said one University of Arkansas student claimed tax exemption as a foreigner.

Texarkana Approves Sales Tax

TEXARKANA, Ark. (AP) — Texarkana voters approved a 1-cent sales tax Tuesday to help finance its model cities program. The tax carried by a vote of 1,211 to 220.

The election was held under an act passed by the February special legislative session allowing cities that are selected for the model cities program to levy a 1-cent sales tax.

State Revenue Commissioner B. Bryan Larey estimates that the Texarkana tax could raise $80,000 yearly to match the several million dollars available in federal funds for various projects included in the model cities program.

The Texas side of the city passed a similar tax last year. "We are pleased and overwhelmed with the people's response to this opportunity to develop our community," said Texarkana Mayor William Carris.

Men Are Challenging Women for Top-paying Secretarial Positions

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP) — "Take a letter, Jack."

That order may become routine in tomorrow's business office. For, reversing a trend of more than half a century, men are beginning to challenge women for top-paying secretarial jobs in industry.

"Of the nation's 2½ to 3 million secretaries and typists, about 98 per cent are women," said Donald Blanchard, Royal Typewriter Company executive. "But there is no doubt that more and more men are entering the field."

The prospect of male competition so far hasn't stirred panic in the bosoms of the nation's Girl Fridays, who are currently celebrating National Secretaries Week. The all-gal National Secretaries Association even has generously amended its by-laws to admit men to membership.

The 1960 U.S. census listed only 41,752 male secretaries and 11,752 male stenographers. That's a mere dribble. But industry sources agree the number has increased steadily since then.

Why would a man want to become a secretary? A better question is—why not?

The secretarial "profession" is being upgraded all the time. It provides indoor work in pleasant surroundings, has many fringe benefits, and the pay is good—from $5,000 to $10,000 a year, or even more. Many young men see the jobs as springboards to executive posts.

And there are plenty of openings. It is expected that industry will be able to absorb 200,000 more secretaries annually for the next decade.

There is plenty of precedent for the aspiring male secretary who dreams of success.

Did you know that President Woodrow Wilson, Henry Ford, and John D. Rockefeller were expert stenographers? The late Billy Rose, multimillionaire showman, started as a stenographer for financier Bernard Baruch and won national contests for his speed at shorthand. Van Johnson, the screen star, once worked as a stenographer for stage producers who couldn't afford a full-time secretary.

The male secretary has some definite advantage in his favor.

It is easier for him to travel with his boss on out-of-town assignments. He generally has fewer objections to staying at the office and working late hours. And—this is a big plus with many employers—he is less likely to quit his job when he gets married, unless he should happen to wed an heiress.

It would be an ironic turn of fortune's wheel if men should rout women from the typing jobs which first emancipated the fairer sex from having to depend for their livelihood by entering household service, working as sewing machine operators, and hiring out as governesses.

For throughout history the secretarial field was male-dominated until the start of this century. The Roman emperors, Julius and Augustus, although both were shorthand experts themselves, dictated their decrees to male scribes. So did in-

Legislature May Get Tax Measures

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Gov. Winthrop Rockefeller Tuesday reversed his insinuations on whether he planned to call for increased taxes in next month's special legislative session.

Rockefeller said at a news conference he would not think it "an impossibility" that his call would include proposals for the increase in taxes.

Rockefeller had said that the budget could be balanced if the legislature would allow the state Administration Department to transfer funds to various agencies drawing from general funds.

Clarence E. "Mike" Frost, consultant to the state administration Department, has projected for several months a $4 million deficit for the biennium according to the level of spending.

Rockefeller was somewhat reluctant Tuesday to talk about the matter, saying he preferred to await next week's presentation of the latest financial figures available to the Legislative Council.

Rockefeller also said he anticipated no specific bills being presented to the council next week as it had asked. He said

Curfew Ordinance Passed Here

The City Board of Directors at their regular semi-monthly meeting last night passed an Ordinance giving the Mayor authority to declare an emergency and establish a curfew for a period of 48 hours, and an Ordinance establishing new rates for Health Program charges.

The Curfew Ordinance provides that a 48 hour curfew can be extended by action upon majority of the City Directors.

The Ordinance establishing rates for the Health Program most of which is to cover the cost of trash and garbage collection and disposal, is designed to provide enough revenue to make the department pay its own way.

Commercial charges will be a minimum of $3.00 per month, with a maximum of $50.00 per month for daily collection. The prices will vary by the amount of refuse handled from a commercial establishment. Twice-

Reports LBJ Fears Trick Over Talks

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson has told diplomats the United States is in frequent touch with North Vietnam on the subject of choosing the site for a Vietnam peace talk.

Johnson said he and his advisers do not know whether the North Vietnamese leadership is seriously interested in solving the site problem or whether it has some other purpose in mind. Some officials have suggested Hanoi may be mainly making propaganda.

Johnson discussed the situation as he sees it in an informal talk with diplomats and others at a White House reception Tuesday night. Various versions of what he said were reported.

"We are in contact with them," he was quoted as having said. "We spoke to them yesterday and today, and we will be in contact with them tomorrow. We don't know whether it's a ploy or not."

Diplomatic authorities confirmed today the sense of what Johnson was saying, without stating his views in precise and quotable language.

The President's points, they said, are that the U.S. government is working persistently to try to solve the site problem; Johnson and his advisers do not know whether the North Vietnamese are serious about solving it, but they will find out.

Diplomatic contacts are reported to have occurred in Vientiane, Laos, where U.S. Ambassador William Sullivan has been in direct touch with North Vietnamese Ambassador Le Van Hien repeatedly since early this month.

The exchange began after Johnson limited the bombing of North Vietnam on March 31 and called for talks "on ending the war."
